TEKNIKA

Jurnal Sains dan Teknologi

Preface

Dear Scholars and Researchers,

We invite you to read and enjoy Teknikika: Journal of Science and Technology November 2021 Edition Volume 17 Number 2. This journal aims to encourage the study of Engineering, Science, and Technology, in particular, by presenting current issues from various perspectives, both theoretical and practical.

Teknika: The Journal of Science and Technology offers various inspiring and interesting articles in engineering, science, and technology, including food technology, physics, materials science, civil, mechanical, chemical, industrial, metallurgy, and electrical engineering. As these subjects are extensively developed, they are relevant to the current situation and provide insight into new perspectives in engineering studies.

We anticipate that these published papers will encourage other academics to generate new ideas and broaden their perspectives for publishing submissions. Writing and publishing are also fun activities for our scholars, academics, and practitioners.

We look forward to welcoming you to the future of Teknikika: Journal of Science and Technology, which will include new insights into modern engineering. We also thank and appreciate all the efforts of the authors, reviewers, and the Editorial Board. Your invaluable help is greatly appreciated. We wish you great health, joy, and happiness in 2022.

Thank you, and happy reading!
